Corrigendum to the summary of the 29th meeting of the Economic and Social Council (see Journal No. 2004/131, p. 10): the fourth paragraph under Dialogue with heads of United Nations funds and programmes should read as follows:

> A free-flowing dialogue with the executive heads ensued, in which the delegations of the following countries participated: Qatar (who also spoke on behalf of the Group of 77 and China), Russian Federation, Tunisia, Japan, China, Guatemala, India, Canada, United Republic of Tanzania, United Kingdom and Cuba, as well as the observers for the Netherlands (on behalf of the European Union) and Brazil.

Signatures, Ratifications, etc.

[Multilateral Treaties Deposited with the Secretary-General]

Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court. New York, 9 September 2002

Ratification: Mali (8 July 2004)[1]

Treaty Event
Focus 2004: Treaties on the Protection of Civilians
United Nations Headquarters
21 to 24 September 2004

Signature of and deposit of instruments relating to multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary General

The Treaty Event will take place from 21 to 24 September 2004 at Headquarters. Appropriate facilities, including media coverage, will be made available for treaty actions to be undertaken in a solemn setting.

Delegations that have notified the Secretary-General, in response to his letter of 12 March 2004, and those still intending to do so, of their intention to sign or deposit instruments relating to multilateral treaties under his custody, in particular those relating to the protection of civilians, are advised to contact the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs to promptly arrange appointments (room S-3200; tel. 1 (212) 963-3942; fax 1 (212) 963-3693; e-mail treaty@un.org).

[1] Date of receipt of the relevant documents.

Delegations are also requested to submit copies of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval, or accession, including, where appropriate, texts of declarations and reservations, and, as necessary, full powers to the Treaty Section by 13 September 2004 for verification.

It is recalled that, under the established international practice, only Heads of State, Heads of Government or Ministers for Foreign Affairs are empowered, by virtue of their functions, to sign treaties on behalf of States without having to produce full powers to that effect. All other representatives wishing to sign treaties must be in possession of appropriate full powers, which expressly authorize signature of specified treaties by a named representative issued and signed by one of these authorities.

The publication Multilateral Treaty Framework: An Invitation to Universal Participation Focus 2004: Treaties on the Protection of Civilians is currently being circulated to all of the Permanent Missions in New York. This publication contains a list of the 24 core treaties relating to the protection of civilians, summaries of key provisions and relevant final clauses, and their status as at 26 March 2004. This information can also be obtained from the United Nations Treaty Collection (UNTC) Web site (http://untreaty.un.org). It is further noted that the texts and status of all multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General can be obtained from the above Web site under the heading Status of Multilateral Treaties Deposited with the Secretary-General.

Further information concerning the requirements for full powers and the deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession (including model instruments) can be found in the Treaty Handbook, which is also available on the UNTC Web site.

Débat général
(21–24 septembre 2004, 27 septembre–1er octobre 2004)

La liste provisoire des orateurs (No 1) pour le débat général de la cinquante-neuvième session ordinaire de l'Assemblée générale est maintenant disponible au Service des affaires de l'Assemblée générale (bureaux S-2925 et S-2940B). La liste provisoire des orateurs (No 1) a également été télécopiée directement aux missions permanentes (bureau du Représentant permanent).

Il est rappelé aux délégations que, conformément à la pratique des sessions récentes de l'Assemblée générale, un temps de parole volontairement limité à un maximum de 15 minutes par délégation sera observé durant le débat général. La liste des orateurs est établie sur la base de cette limite de 15 minutes. Un mécanisme a été installé à la tribune de l'Assemblée générale afin d'aider les orateurs à respecter la limite du temps de parole.

Cérémonie de signature et de dépôt des traités
Thème 2004 : Traités sur la protection des civils
Siège de l'Organisation des Nations Unies

21 au 24 septembre 2004

Signature et dépôt d'instruments relatifs aux traités multilatéraux déposés auprès du Secrétaire général

La cérémonie de signature et de dépôt de traités aura lieu au Siège de l'Organisation des Nations Unies du 21 au 24 septembre 2004. Les dispositions nécessaires, notamment la couverture par les médias, seront prises pour assurer toute la solennité voulue à ces actes.

Les délégations ayant notifié au Secrétaire général, en réponse à sa lettre en date du 12 mars 2004, leur intention de signer ou de déposer des instruments relatifs aux traités multilatéraux sous sa garde, en particulier aux traités se rapportant à la protection des civils, ou celles qui entendent le faire, sont priées de contacter la Section des traités du Bureau des affaires juridiques pour prendre rendez-vous le plus tôt possible (bureau S-3200; tél. 1 (212) 963-3942; télécopie 1 (212) 963-3693; courriel treaty@un.org).

Les délégations sont aussi priées de soumettre à la Section des traités les copies des instruments de ratification, d'acceptation, d'approbation ou d'adhésion, avec les textes des déclarations et réserves éventuelles, et, le cas échéant, les pleins pouvoirs pour vérification, au plus tard le 13 septembre 2004.

Il est rappelé que, conformément à la pratique internationale établie, seuls les chefs d'État, les chefs de gouvernement et les ministres des affaires étrangères sont habilités ès qualités à signer des traités au nom des États sans avoir à produire de pleins pouvoirs à cet effet. Tous les autres représentants désirant signer des traités doivent être munis de pleins pouvoirs émanant de l'une de ces autorités et autorisant expressément la signature des traités indiqués par un représentant dûment habilité.

La publication Traités multilatéraux : Pour une participation universelle - Thème 2004 : Traités sur la protection des civils est couramment distribuée à toutes les missions permanentes à New York. Cette publication contient une liste des 24 traités se rapportant à la protection des civils, accompagnée des résumés de leurs dispositions principales et des clauses finales pertinentes et indiquant leur état au 26 mars 2004.

Cette information est également disponible sur le site Web de la collection des traités des Nations Unies (http://untreaty.un.org/). En outre, les textes et l'état des traités multilatéraux déposés auprès du Secrétaire général peuvent être consultés sur le site Web mentionné ci dessus sous la rubrique Statut des traités multilatéraux déposés auprès du Secrétaire général.

[1] Date de réception des documents pertinents.

De plus amples informations concernant l'exigence des pleins pouvoirs et le dépôt d'instruments de ratification, d'acceptation, d'approbation ou d'adhésion (y compris des modèles d'instrument) figurent dans le Manuel des traités, que l'on peut également consulter sur le site Web du RTNU.

General Assembly
Fifty-ninth session

General debate
(21–24 September 2004, 27 September–1 October 2004)

The provisional list of speakers (No. 1) for the general debate of the fifty-ninth regular session of the General Assembly is now available at the General Assembly Affairs Branch (rooms S-2925 and S-2940B). The provisional list of speakers (No. 1) has also been sent by fax directly to the Permanent Missions (Office of the Permanent Representative).

Delegations are reminded that in accordance with the practice at recent sessions of the General Assembly, a voluntary 15-minute time limit should be observed during the general debate. The list of speakers was prepared on the basis of this 15-minute time limit. To help speakers in the general debate respect the time limit, a mechanism will be installed at the rostrum of the General Assembly Hall.

Treaty Event
Focus 2004: Treaties on the Protection of Civilians
United Nations Headquarters
21 to 24 September 2004

Signature of and deposit of instruments relating to multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary General

The Treaty Event will take place from 21 to 24 September 2004 at Headquarters. Appropriate facilities, including media coverage, will be made available for treaty actions to be undertaken in a solemn setting.

[1] Date of receipt of the relevant documents.

Delegations that have notified the Secretary-General, in response to his letter of 12 March 2004, and those still intending to do so, of their intention to sign or deposit instruments relating to multilateral treaties under his custody, in particular those relating to the protection of civilians, are advised to contact the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs to promptly arrange appointments (room S-3200; tel. 1 (212) 963-3942; fax 1 (212) 963-3693; e-mail treaty@un.org).

Delegations are also requested to submit copies of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval, or accession, including, where appropriate, texts of declarations and reservations, and, as necessary, full powers to the Treaty Section by 13 September 2004 for verification.

It is recalled that, under the established international practice, only Heads of State, Heads of Government or Ministers for Foreign Affairs are empowered, by virtue of their functions, to sign treaties on behalf of States without having to produce full powers to that effect. All other representatives wishing to sign treaties must be in possession of appropriate full powers, which expressly authorize signature of specified treaties by a named representative issued and signed by one of these authorities.

The publication Multilateral Treaty Framework: An Invitation to Universal Participation Focus 2004: Treaties on the Protection of Civilians is currently being circulated to all of the Permanent Missions in New York. This publication contains a list of the 24 core treaties relating to the protection of civilians, summaries of key provisions and relevant final clauses, and their status as at 26 March 2004. This information can also be obtained from the United Nations Treaty Collection (UNTC) Web site (http://untreaty.un.org). It is further noted that the texts and status of all multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General can be obtained from the above Web site under the heading Status of Multilateral Treaties Deposited with the Secretary-General.

Further information concerning the requirements for full powers and the deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession (including model instruments) can be found in the Treaty Handbook, which is also available on the UNTC Web site.
